

ProctorU is potentially able to assist with your proctoring needs for final exams starting May 10th or later. However, due to the unprecedented volume they are experiencing and the uncertainty of the situation, they cannot make any guarantees. If you know you will need online proctoring for finals, please have a central contact at your campus identify the needs of the campus and contact ProctorU ASAP to get the process started. Each request will be handled on a case by case basis.
