

Interested in learning how to engage students using emerging technologies?

Then this is just what you need!

Tools of Engagement Project (TOEP)

On-demand Discovery Learning Professional Development

Explore TOEP resources at your own pace

TOEP runs through spring 2013 and can be completed in as little as 30 minutes per week.

Three faculty, selected through peer review will receive SUNY CPD Training Points (valued at $200)!*

Other incentives, including iTunes gift cards, will also be awarded.

Visit the TOEP website and register today!

*Points can be used to enroll in SUNY CPD professional development opportunities including the Conference on Instruction and Technology (CIT). This year, CIT is at Utica-Rome and is a great place to exchange knowledge about using emerging technologies to enhance teaching and learning.

Only faculty at participating campuses (University at Buffalo, Binghamton University, Buffalo State, SUNY Cortland and SUNY Fredonia) are eligible for incentives.

All activities must be completed no later than April 5, 2013.

Funded through a SUNY Innovative Instructional Technology Grant (IITG)
