Any additional comments or resources you wish to share?

The Readers' Thoreau - the website that resulted from our Crowdsourcing Commentary IIT grant - is covered in this October 17 article in the Chronicle of Higher Education together with the other projects that make up Digital Thoreau and a course at in which students are building a replica Thoreau cabin on Geneseo's campus. The article is behind the Chronicle's paywall, but it can be downloaded in pdf from SUNY Geneseo's website:

http://roemer.geneseo.edu/media/photo_downloads/chethoreau.pdf Under the terms of the Chronicle's license agreement, the pdf will have to be removed after 30 days. I've attached the pdf to this outcomes report for the IITG archives.
