Have you applied for, or received additional funds? (choose all that apply):

- Consider the project complete, and do not intend to seek additional support

Access Keywords: Enrollment, Diversity, Capacity, Affordability

Yes, our program allowed for the adoption and remixing of OERs across 8 courses. Through the adoption process, instructors dropped costly textbooks saving each student an average of $124 per course. A preliminary potential savings of $30,320 for the Fall 2018 semester.

Completion Keywords: Completion, Persistence, Transfer, Retention

The project supported course access, affordability, and choice. For example the OERs allow for immediate access to the content, cost savings for the students, and choice for student (they can decide if they want a printed version of OER at low-cost).
Student achievement is to be determined, although OERs are supported by research in terms of student learning outcomes.

Success Keywords: Applied Learning, Student Supports, Financial Literacy, Career Success

This would depend on each course and instructor style. For example, one of the participants, teaches an intensive English language course to students who are identified as needing remedial English language instruction, most students are international students.

Inquiry Keywords: Scholarship, Discovery, Innovation, Mentoring

As the courses have yet to be taught, we cannot report any
The Co-PI plans on presenting outcomes at a librarian's conference in the Fall.

Engagement Keywords: START-UP New York, Commercialization, Workforce Development, Alumni/Philanthropic Support, Community Service.

What recommendations would you make to scale-up or share your project more broadly (within an educational sector, or perhaps SUNY-wide)?

UAlbany should join the Sustainability project and project steering team. Our faculty development model could be implemented SUNY-wide.

Do you intend to create an ongoing "Community of Practice" within the SUNY Learning Commons to continue work and dialog regarding this project?

Unsure at this time

Overall, how successful was IITG in meeting your project goals? (You may elaborate on your response in the final question if not addressed elsewhere.)

Extremely successful

Do you wish your current abstract to be used?

Yes
